

Wedding Invitation Regret

Dear [Couple's Names],

I hope this message finds you well. It is with a heavy heart that I must regretfully decline your kind invitation to celebrate your wedding on [Wedding Date].

Due to [reason for not attending, e.g., prior commitments, travel issues], I will not be able to join you on this joyous occasion. I am truly saddened to miss such a beautiful day and the chance to witness the love you share.

Please know that I will be thinking of you both and sending all my love and best wishes as you embark on this new journey together. I look forward to celebrating with you at a later date.

Wishing you a day filled with love, joy, and cherished memories.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]
