

Conflict Minerals Policy Statement

Date: [Insert Date]

To Whom It May Concern,

[Company Name] is committed to ensuring that our sourcing activities do not contribute to human rights abuses and environmental degradation associated with conflict minerals. We recognize the importance of ethical sourcing and the impact of conflict minerals on our supply chain.

As part of our commitment, we will:

- Conduct due diligence on our supply chain to ensure compliance with applicable regulations and standards regarding conflict minerals.
- Establish and maintain a conflict minerals policy that adheres to the guidelines set forth by the Dodd-Frank Act.
- Engage with suppliers to promote transparency and accountability in sourcing practices.
- Support initiatives that promote responsible sourcing and community development in conflict-affected areas.

We understand the significance of responsible mineral sourcing in fostering sustainable community growth and human rights and are committed to these principles in every aspect of our operations.
