Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to formally express my objection to the recent proposed changes to small business regulations that are set to affect businesses like mine, [Your Business Name].

As a small business owner, I understand the importance of regulations in maintaining standards and protecting consumers. However, the proposed changes will impose unnecessary burdens that could jeopardize our operations, reduce our competitiveness, and ultimately harm the local economy.

Specifically, the changes regarding [specific regulation or requirement] will [explain briefly how this will affect your business]. This is detrimental as it would [explain potential consequences].

I urge you to reconsider these proposed changes and engage in dialogue with local business owners to better understand the implications on our community. I believe that together, we can find a balanced approach that supports both regulatory objectives and the vitality of small businesses.

Thank you for considering my concerns. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
