Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally present my defense regarding the allegations of academic misconduct related to [describe the specific incident or assignment]. I understand the seriousness of this matter and appreciate the opportunity to state my case.

Firstly, I would like to emphasize that I have always valued academic integrity and have strived to maintain it throughout my educational journey. The allegations against me state that [briefly summarize the allegation(s)]. However, I firmly believe that there has been a misunderstanding due to [explain circumstances that may have led to the allegations, such as miscommunication, lack of clarity in guidelines, etc.].

To support my claims, I have attached [mention any evidence you are providing, such as emails, drafts, or witness statements]. This documentation demonstrates that [explain how the evidence supports your defense].

I sincerely regret any confusion that may have arisen and assure you that it was never my intention to breach any academic standards. I am committed to rectifying this situation and am willing to cooperate fully with the investigation process. I kindly ask for your understanding and request the chance to further discuss this matter in a meeting.

Thank you for considering my defense. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
