

Feedback on Undergraduate Course Scheduling Preferences

Dear [Course Coordinator/Professor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to provide feedback regarding the scheduling of undergraduate courses for the upcoming semester.

After reviewing the current schedule, I would like to share my preferences and suggestions:

- Course Name 1: I believe that offering this course in the afternoon would accommodate more students, as many have morning commitments.
- Course Name 2: A weekend option for this course would be beneficial, especially for working students.
- Course Name 3: I suggest including evening classes for this course, as it traditionally receives high enrollment from students with daytime obligations.

Thank you for considering these suggestions. I appreciate your efforts in making the scheduling process as accommodating as possible.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
