Dear Financial Aid Officer,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request a deferral of my financial aid for the upcoming academic year due to academic reasons.

[Briefly explain your reasons for the deferral, such as unexpected personal circumstances, academic challenges, or health issues that have impacted your studies.]

I believe that taking a deferral will allow me to better prepare and focus on my academic progress, ensuring I can make the most of my education.

Thank you for considering my request. I appreciate your understanding and support regarding my situation. I look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
