Dear [Sponsor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request the renewal of our sponsorship agreement as we look forward to continuing our fruitful partnership. Your support has been invaluable to our organization, and we greatly appreciate your commitment to our goals and missions.

As we plan for the upcoming year, we have identified several initiatives that align with our shared values and objectives. We believe extending our partnership will not only benefit our organization but also provide significant exposure and engagement opportunities for [Company/Organization Name].

Please find attached a detailed proposal outlining our plans for the next year and how your continued support will make a meaningful impact. We are excited about the possibilities ahead and are eager to collaborate further.

Thank you for considering our request. I would be happy to discuss this proposal at your earliest convenience.

Warm regards,
