To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to submit my investigative report titled "[Title of Report]" for consideration in the Investigative Reporting Initiative. This report addresses [brief overview of the topic], which I believe is crucial for public awareness and accountability in [relevant field or community].

The investigation explores [brief description of investigation methods and findings]. Over [time period], I gathered information through [mention sources of information, interviews, or data analysis] and found [key findings].

I have attached the full report along with supporting documents and any necessary permissions from interview subjects. I believe this work sheds light on [importance of the issue] and will resonate with your audience.

Thank you for considering my submission. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
