

Call for Stories from Citizen Journalists

Dear [Recipient's Name],

We are reaching out to you as a valued member of our community of citizen journalists. Your unique perspective and experiences are vital to documenting the issues that affect our lives and neighborhoods.

We invite you to share your personal stories and experiences that highlight important events, challenges, or triumphs in your community. These narratives will not only enrich our collective understanding but also empower others by bringing attention to overlooked topics.

Please consider contributing your story by following these guidelines:

- Length: 500-1000 words
- Format: Word document or PDF
- Include your name, a brief bio, and any relevant images

Submissions should be sent to [email@example.com] by [submission deadline]. We look forward to hearing your voice and sharing your important contributions with our audience.

Thank you for your dedication to journalism and your community.

Sincerely,
