Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. As we move forward in the divorce process, I believe it is important for us to have a discussion regarding the division of our assets. It is my intention to approach this matter fairly and amicably, seeking a resolution that respects both of our interests.

To facilitate this discussion, I suggest we review the following items:

- Real Estate: [Details about properties]
- Bank Accounts: [Details of joint and individual accounts]
- Retirement Accounts: [Details about pension plans and 401(k)s]
- Vehicles: [Details about cars, bikes, etc.]
- Personal Property: [Details about valuable personal items]

I propose we set a date and time to meet and discuss this further. I believe a face-to-face conversation can aid in clearing any misunderstandings and foster a spirit of cooperation. Please let me know your availability.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your prompt response.

Warm regards,
