Dear [Partner's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. As we approach our wedding date, I believe it is important for us to discuss and negotiate a prenuptial agreement. This is not only about protecting our individual assets but also about setting a solid foundation for our future together.

To ensure that both of our interests are considered, I would like to propose that we meet to discuss the essential terms of the prenuptial contract. I believe that having an open conversation about our expectations and needs will lead to a fair agreement that reflects both of our wishes.

Here are a few points I think we should cover during our discussions:

- Identification of separate and marital properties
- Division of assets and debts in case of a divorce
- Spousal support considerations
- Future financial responsibilities

Please let me know your availability for a meeting to discuss this matter further. I am looking forward to working together to create an agreement that respects both of our desires and secures our respective futures.

Thank you for considering this important discussion.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]
