Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to formally appeal the decision made regarding my visa application for asylum, reference number [insert reference number]. On [insert date of decision], I received the notification that my application was denied, which I find both surprising and distressing.

As an asylum seeker, I believe deeply that my situation meets the criteria for protection due to [briefly explain your reason for seeking asylum, e.g., persecution, threat to life, etc.]. I previously submitted [mention any key evidence or documentation], which supports my claims.

Since the submission of my application, additional evidence has arisen that strengthens my case, including [briefly mention any new evidence or changes in circumstances]. I believe this new information warrants a re-evaluation of my application.

I kindly request that you review my case again, taking into consideration the additional evidence I have provided. I am more than willing to supply further information or to provide a personal interview to discuss my situation more comprehensively.

Thank you for your attention to my appeal. I hope for a positive reconsideration of my application as I seek safety and a better future.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
