Subject: Objection to the Will of [Deceased's Name]

Dear [Executor's Name],

I, [Your Full Name], am writing to formally object to the validity of the last will and testament of [Deceased's Name], dated [Date of the Will], on the grounds of undue influence.

As a beneficiary named in a previous version of the will, I believe that [Deceased's Name] was subjected to undue influence by [Name of Influencing Person] which led to the alteration of their wishes as reflected in the current will.

[Name of Influencing Person] had a close and manipulative relationship with [Deceased's Name] during the time the will was drafted and executed, which I believe compromised the autonomy of [Deceased's Name]'s decision-making process.

Accordingly, I request that the court consider this objection as part of the probate proceedings, and I seek to ensure that [Deceased's Name]'s true intentions are honored.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
