Subject: Objection to Last Will and Testament of [Deceased's Name]

Dear [Executor's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally object to the Last Will and Testament of [Deceased's Name], dated [Insert Date of Will], on the grounds that it fails to adequately provide for the dependents of the deceased, specifically [list dependents' names, e.g., children, spouse, etc.].

As per [relevant law or statute], it is essential that the will reflects the intention of the deceased to support their dependents. Given the clear dependency relationships, I believe the absence of provisions for these individuals raises legal and ethical concerns.

Furthermore, I urge a review of the intentions of the deceased, as I believe they would have wished to include these dependents in their estate planning.

I request an acknowledgment of this objection and any action you plan to take in response. Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,
