Introduction

Dear [Beneficiary Name],

As we prepare for our upcoming consultation regarding your benefits, we would like to outline some important family guidelines to ensure a productive and respectful discussion.

Guidelines

- Respect each other's opinions and feelings.
- Keep discussions focused on the benefits and relevant information.
- Encourage open communication and active listening.
- Do not interrupt when someone is speaking; allow everyone a chance to share.
- Agree on a time limit to keep discussions concise, if necessary.
- Document important points and decisions made during the meeting for future reference.

Conclusion

We look forward to our consultation and believe that following these guidelines will help us achieve a successful outcome for everyone involved.

Warm regards,
