Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing on behalf of [Your Organization/Club Name] to formally request an environmental impact study regarding our current and future projects. As we continue to engage in activities that may affect our local environment, it is crucial for us to understand the implications of our actions.

Conducting an environmental impact study will enable us to identify potential risks and develop strategies to mitigate any negative effects on our surrounding ecosystem. We believe that this proactive approach not only serves our community but also aligns with our club's values of sustainability and responsibility.

We kindly ask for your assistance in facilitating this study. Please let us know how we can proceed with this request and if there are any specific requirements or steps we need to follow.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your positive response.
