To Whom It May Concern,

We, at [Association Name], are writing to formally apply for Fair Trade Certification. Our association has been committed to promoting sustainable practices and supporting fair trade initiatives within our community since [Year of Establishment].

As an existing association, we have established robust relationships with local producers, ensuring that they receive fair wages and working conditions. Our mission aligns closely with the principles of fair trade, which focus on creating equitable trading partnerships that foster sustainable development.

Enclosed with this letter, you will find our completed application form, along with supplementary documents that provide detailed information about our activities, our membership, and our impact on the community. We believe that obtaining Fair Trade Certification will enhance our credibility and help us further our mission of promoting social and economic justice.

We appreciate your consideration of our application and look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the fair trade movement.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
