Dear [Corporate Contact Name],

We are reaching out to propose an exciting partnership between [Nonprofit Organization Name] and [Company Name]. As a nonprofit dedicated to [briefly describe mission and goals], we have been making a significant impact in [describe community or demographic] since [year established].

With your support, we believe we can amplify our efforts and bring about meaningful change. We are seeking financial contributions and collaborative opportunities that align with our mission and values. Your involvement can provide essential resources that will empower us to further our impact in the community.

In exchange for your generous support, we offer [mention potential benefits to the corporate partner, such as branding, visibility, employee engagement opportunities, etc.]. We believe that together, we can make a substantial difference while also enhancing your corporate social responsibility initiatives.

We would love the opportunity to discuss this proposal further and explore how we can align our goals to create a win-win partnership. Please feel free to contact me at [your phone number] or [your email address].

Thank you for considering this opportunity to make a positive impact.

Sincerely,
