Dear [Recipient's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. We are excited to present a collaborative subscription offer that we believe will bring mutual benefits to both our organizations.

Our subscription service provides [brief description of what your service offers]. We have been following your work and feel that a partnership could enhance the value we each provide to our customers.

We propose the following terms for our collaboration:

- Joint promotion of services
- Exclusive discounts for subscribers of both parties
- Shared content development initiatives

We are confident that our combined efforts can lead to significant growth and success. We would love to discuss this offer further and explore the potential avenues we can pursue together.

Thank you for considering this opportunity. We look forward to your positive response.

Best regards,
