Dear Admissions Committee,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally respond to my admission deferral for the [insert program name] at [College/University Name]. While I am disappointed, I appreciate the consideration given to my application.

Since submitting my application, I have continued to engage in activities that demonstrate my commitment to my academic and extracurricular pursuits, including [briefly list relevant activities or achievements]. I believe these experiences further enhance my suitability as a candidate for your program.

I remain very interested in [College/University Name] and am eager to contribute to the campus community. Thank you for reconsidering my application. I look forward to the possibility of enrolling as part of the [insert year] class.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
