Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally clarify and request the elimination of a past judgment that I believe does not reflect my current circumstances and character.

On [insert date of judgment], a judgment was made against me regarding [briefly describe the nature of the judgment]. Since that time, I have taken significant steps to rectify the situation by [provide details of actions taken, such as attending relevant courses, community service, or personal achievements].

I believe that these efforts demonstrate my commitment to personal growth and responsibility. I kindly ask that you reconsider the judgment in light of these developments and look forward to the opportunity for a fresh assessment.

Thank you for considering my request. I appreciate your time and understanding. Please feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience should you need any further information.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
