Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to inform you that we have detected potential fraudulent activity involving your credit report. As your credit report is a crucial aspect of your financial identity, it is essential that you address this matter promptly.

On [insert date of the detection], it was brought to our attention that there were [briefly describe the suspicious activities, e.g., unauthorized accounts opened, denied applications, etc.]. This information appears to be impacting your credit score and overall creditworthiness.

To protect your financial health, we recommend taking the following actions:

- Review your credit report for any unfamiliar accounts or inquiries.
- Consider placing a fraud alert or credit freeze on your credit file.
- File a report with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and your local law enforcement.
- Contact your creditors to notify them of the situation.

If you have any questions or require assistance, please do not hesitate to reach out to me directly at [your phone number] or [your email address].

Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,
