Dear [Union Committee/Board Name],

I am writing to formally request authorization to initiate a strike as a result of [briefly explain reason, e.g., ongoing disputes regarding terms of employment, unresolved grievances, etc.].

Despite our best efforts to negotiate and reach an amicable resolution, [explain any previous actions taken, e.g., meetings held, proposals submitted, etc.]. Unfortunately, these efforts have not yielded satisfactory outcomes.

Therefore, I believe it is in the best interest of our members to seek the support of the union in order to pursue a strike. This action aims to [explain the goals of the strike briefly, e.g., secure fair wages, improved working conditions, etc.].

I respectfully request that the union hold a vote among the membership to authorize this strike. It is crucial for us to stand united in our pursuit of fair treatment and respect in the workplace.

Thank you for considering this request. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
