Dear [Recipient's Name],

We are pleased to present our proposal for providing transportation services for your employees. At [Your Company Name], we understand the importance of reliable and efficient transportation for enhancing employee satisfaction and productivity.

Service Overview

We propose to offer a dedicated employee transportation service with the following features:

- Regular pick-up and drop-off services at designated locations.
- Flexible scheduling to accommodate different work shifts.
- Comfortable and well-maintained vehicles.
- Experienced and professional drivers.
- Real-time tracking for added security.

Pricing

Our pricing structure is competitive and designed to provide maximum value. We can discuss specific rates and options that fit within your budget during our next meeting.

Conclusion

We believe that our transportation service will greatly benefit your employees and enhance their commuting experience. We would love the opportunity to further discuss how we can work together to implement this service.

Thank you for considering our proposal. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
