

Internal Referral Success Story

Dear Team,

I hope this message finds you well. I wanted to take a moment to share a success story related to our internal referral program.

Employee Spotlight: Jane Doe

Recently, we welcomed Jane Doe to our marketing team through our internal referral program. Her transition has been nothing short of remarkable. Jane was referred by John Smith, who believed she would be a great fit for our culture and values.

Since joining, Jane has:

- Increased social media engagement by 30% in her first month.
- Introduced innovative marketing strategies that resonated with our audience.
- Received positive feedback from her peers on collaboration and teamwork.

This success story highlights the effectiveness of our internal referrals in bringing in top talent and enhancing our team's performance.

Let's continue to encourage and recognize the efforts of our employees in referring talent that adds value to our organization.

Best regards,

Emily Johnson
