

Complaint Regarding Misleading Advertisements

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally express my dissatisfaction with the recent advertisements promoted by your company regarding your telecom services. I believe these advertisements are misleading and do not accurately reflect the services and pricing that are being provided.

On [insert date], I came across an advertisement claiming that your services offer [insert claims made in advertisement]. However, after signing up, I found that the actual services and pricing are drastically different from what was advertised.

Such misleading information not only leads to customer dissatisfaction but also damages your company's reputation. I urge you to address this issue promptly and provide clarity on your service offerings.

I look forward to your response regarding this matter.

Sincerely,
