Re: Dispute of Claim Number: [Insert Claim Number]

Dear Claims Adjuster,

I am writing to formally dispute the settlement offer regarding my theft claim submitted on [Insert Date of Submission]. I appreciate your attention to this matter, but I believe the settlement offered does not fully reflect the value of the items stolen and the impact of this loss on my life.

According to my claim, the following items were reported stolen:

- [Item 1 - Description and Value]
- [Item 2 - Description and Value]
- [Item 3 - Description and Value]

The initial assessment of the claim suggests a settlement amount of [Insert Amount], which I believe is insufficient. Based on my evidence and the market value of the stolen items, I am requesting a review of this decision. I have attached supporting documentation, including receipts, photographs, and other evidence.

I kindly request that you review my case further and reconsider the settlement offer. I believe a fair and accurate assessment will provide a resolution that reflects the actual loss I have sustained.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
