Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. As we continue to navigate our current situation regarding the custody of our child(ren), I believe it is essential for us to consider mediation as a constructive way to reach an agreement that serves the best interests of our child(ren).

Mediate parenting arrangements allow us to collaborate in a neutral and structured environment, helping us express our concerns and desires openly while maintaining a focus on our child's well-being. I suggest we engage a qualified mediator to facilitate this process.

Here are some potential dates and times I am available for mediation:
