Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to address a dispute that has arisen concerning the inheritance of the estate of [Deceased's Name]. It has come to my attention that there are differing interpretations regarding the distribution of assets as stipulated in the will.

As you know, the will states that [briefly outline the relevant portions of the will]. However, there appears to be a disagreement regarding [specifically state the points of contention]. I believe it is crucial that we approach this situation with transparency and mutual respect, in hopes of reaching an amicable resolution.

I propose we arrange a meeting to discuss our points of view and seek a common understanding. Please let me know your available dates and times, so we may facilitate this discussion.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I am looking forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
