Dear [Insert Recipient Name],

We are writing to provide feedback regarding the recent community engagement efforts focused on neighborhood safety held on [Insert Date of Event]. We appreciate the opportunity to voice our concerns and suggestions as residents who are committed to improving the safety of our community.

Overview of Feedback

- Increased Lighting: We propose enhancing street lighting in identified dark areas to improve visibility.
- Community Patrols: Organizing volunteer patrols could foster a sense of security among residents.
- Safety Workshops: Hosting regular safety workshops could educate residents on crime prevention strategies.

Concerns Raised

During the meeting, several residents expressed concerns about recent incidents of crime in our area. Specific attention was drawn to the need for increased police presence during evening hours.

Conclusion

Thank you for considering our feedback. We are eager to collaborate with you and other community members to implement these suggestions and create a safer neighborhood for everyone. We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
