

Referral Request Letter

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am reaching out to ask for your assistance in referring me to anyone who might be in need of [your freelance services, e.g., graphic design, writing, web development].

As you know, I have been working as a freelancer for [duration], and I have had the pleasure of collaborating with various clients, including [mention any notable clients or projects if applicable]. I am passionate about delivering quality work and building lasting professional relationships.

If you know anyone looking for [specific services], I would greatly appreciate it if you could pass my information along. Your support means a lot to me, and any referrals would be incredibly helpful as I continue to grow my business.

Thank you in advance for considering my request. Please let me know if you need any more details about my services or portfolio.

Best regards,
