Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally apply for a liquor license for [Brewery Name], located at [Brewery Address]. Our brewery aims to provide high-quality craft beers to the local community while ensuring compliance with all state and federal regulations.

Enclosed with this letter, you will find the necessary documentation, including our completed application form, proof of ownership, and relevant financial statements. We have also included our site plans and a detailed description of our brewing operations.

We appreciate your consideration of our application and are eager to contribute to the local market. Please let us know if you require additional information or documentation.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
