To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally apply for a towing service license under the owner-operator model. I am committed to providing reliable and efficient towing services within [Specify Area/Region].

As an owner-operator, I possess the necessary equipment and experience to ensure safe and effective towing. Enclosed with this letter are the required documents, including:

- Copy of my driver's license
- Proof of insurance
- Towing equipment specifications
- Background check information

I understand the importance of adhering to state regulations and maintaining the highest standards in the towing industry. I am dedicated to upholding these standards in my business operations.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
