

Interview Request

Dear [Client's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. My name is [Your Name], and I am a freelance [Your Profession]. I am reaching out to express my interest in collaborating with you on [Project Name/Description].

To better understand your needs and expectations, I would love to schedule a brief interview at your convenience. This will allow us to discuss your project further and explore how I can best assist you.

Please let me know your availability for a discussion sometime this week or next. I am flexible with timings and can adjust to suit your schedule.

Thank you for considering my request. I am looking forward to the opportunity to work together.

Best regards,
