Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to propose a joint publication on our recent findings in the field of pharmaceutical research. As you are aware, our teams have been collaborating on [mention specific project or study], and the preliminary results indicate significant potential for advancing our understanding of [briefly describe research focus].

The objective of this publication would be to consolidate our findings, discuss our methodologies, and outline the implications for future research in the pharmaceutical sector. I believe that combining our expertise could provide valuable insights and enhance the visibility of our work.

I suggest we hold a meeting to discuss this proposal further and outline the structure of the manuscript. Please let me know your availability, and I will do my best to accommodate.

Thank you for considering this opportunity for collaboration. I look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
