

Dear [Name],

Thank you for reaching out and considering us for your technology sponsorship proposal. We appreciate your effort in sharing your ideas with us.

After careful consideration, we have decided to decline your offer for sponsorship at this time. While we recognize the potential benefits, we have a specific strategy and direction that does not align with your proposal.

We wish you all the best in your future endeavors and hope to connect again under different circumstances.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,
