To Whom It May Concern,

I hope this message finds you well. My name is [Your Name], and I am writing to inquire about the financial hardship programs that may be available through [Organization/Company Name].

Due to [brief explanation of your situation, e.g., unexpected medical expenses, job loss, etc.], I am experiencing financial difficulties and would like to explore any assistance programs or resources that could help me manage my current situation.

I would appreciate any information you can provide regarding eligibility requirements, the application process, and any documentation needed to apply for these programs.

Thank you for your time and assistance. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
