Feedback Request: Connectivity Issues

Dear [Client's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am reaching out to collect your feedback regarding the connectivity issues you experienced during our recent project. Understanding your experience is crucial for improving my services and ensuring a smoother collaboration in the future.

Could you please take a moment to share your thoughts on the following:

- What specific connectivity issues did you encounter?
- How did these issues impact your experience?
- Any suggestions you have for resolving similar issues in future projects?

Your feedback is invaluable to me, and I appreciate your help in enhancing my freelance services. Thank you for your time, and I look forward to your response.

Best regards,
