Dear [Student's Name],

We are writing to inform you of the outcome of your recent reassessment regarding your academic probation status. After careful consideration of your academic progress and performance, the following decisions have been made:

Outcome: [Successful/Continued Probation/Other]

[If successful, specify: Congratulations! You have successfully completed your probationary period. Your current standing is now classified as [academic standing].]

[If continued probation, specify: You are still on academic probation. We encourage you to seek additional support and resources to improve your academic standing.]

[If other, specify: Your situation needs further review. Please schedule a meeting with your academic advisor to discuss your options.]

Next Steps

[List any required actions, deadlines, or meetings that the student needs to fulfill.]

We are here to support your academic journey, and we encourage you to reach out if you have any questions or need assistance.

Sincerely,
