

Subject: Request for Book Review

Dear [Critic's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. My name is [Your Name], and I am an author reaching out with great admiration for your insightful reviews and contributions to the literary community.

I am writing to humbly request your consideration in reviewing my latest book, titled "[Book Title]," which was published on [Publication Date]. The book explores [brief description of the book's themes or genre], and I believe it aligns with the interests of your readership.

If you are interested, I would be thrilled to send you a complimentary copy for your consideration. Your feedback would be invaluable to me, and I would be honored to receive a review from such a respected voice in the industry.

Thank you for considering my request. I look forward to the possibility of your response.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]

[Your Contact Information]

[Your Website or Social Media Links]