Dear [Publisher's Name],

I am excited to propose a publishing contract for my upcoming self-help guide titled "[Title of the Guide]". This manuscript delves into [brief description of the content and target audience], offering readers practical tools and strategies to enhance their lives.

With my background in [your qualifications or experience], combined with the extensive research conducted for this guide, I believe it will resonate with audiences seeking personal growth and improvement.

The manuscript is approximately [word count] words and includes [mention any unique features, such as exercises, real-life stories, or expert interviews]. I aim to inspire readers and drive engagement through relatable content and actionable advice.

I am seeking a publishing agreement that includes [mention key contract terms you desire, such as royalties, marketing support, and distribution]. I am confident that together we can create a successful partnership that will benefit both parties.

Thank you for considering this proposal. I look forward to the possibility of working together to bring "[Title of the Guide]" to life.

Sincerely,
