

Proposal for Contribution to Children's Literature Anthology

[Your Name]

[Your Address]

[City, State, Zip Code]

[Email Address]

[Phone Number]

[Date]

[Editor's Name]

[Anthology Title]

[Publisher's Name]

[Publisher's Address]

Dear [Editor's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose my contribution to the upcoming anthology titled "[Anthology Title]." As a passionate writer dedicated to children's literature, I believe my work aligns perfectly with the theme and target audience of your anthology.

The piece I wish to contribute, titled "[Title of Your Work]," is a [brief description of the story and its relevance to children's literature]. It aims to [mention the goal of the story, such as imparting a lesson, sparking imagination, etc.].

My background includes [briefly mention your qualifications, previous publications, or any relevant experiences]. I am confident that my work will resonate with children and their families, engaging them while also promoting [mention any values or messages your story conveys].

Thank you for considering my proposal. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your esteemed anthology. Please feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience for any further discussion or clarification.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]