Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to express my interest in the [Name of Residency Program] and to propose a series of poetry projects that I believe would greatly benefit from the resources and community this residency offers.

As a poet dedicated to exploring themes of [insert themes, e.g., identity, nature, etc.], I have developed a project titled "[Project Title]." This work aims to [briefly describe the project's goals and intended audience]. Through this project, I plan to create a collection of poems that [describe what the poems will address or convey].

Additionally, I am excited to undertake another initiative called "[Second Project Title]," which focuses on [brief description]. This project will not only explore [themes or techniques] but also engage with the local community through workshops and readings, fostering a collaborative creative environment.

My previous works, including [mention any notable publications or accomplishments], have prepared me for this exploration and I am eager to contribute to the vibrant artistic community at [Organization/Institution Name]. I believe that the [Name of Residency Program] will provide the perfect setting to deepen my practice and expand my reach as a poet.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your esteemed program and sharing my work with the community during my residency.

Warm regards,
