Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally request representation of my products in your upcoming merchandise catalog.

As a [brief description of your business], I believe that my products align perfectly with your customer base and can complement your existing offerings. My catalog features [brief description of the products], which have seen considerable success in [mention markets or demographics].

I am attaching samples of my products along with this letter for your review. I am confident that including my merchandise in your catalog will drive mutual benefits and enhance your product range.

Please let me know if you would be interested in discussing this opportunity further. I look forward to your prompt response.

Thank you for considering my request.

Sincerely,
