

Mentorship Agreement

Date: [Insert Date]

Dear [Mentee's Name],

I am thrilled to embark on this mentorship journey with you as you navigate the world of authorship. This letter outlines our mentorship relationship and my commitment to support you in your writing endeavors.

Objectives

1. To provide guidance on the writing process.
2. To assist in the development of your manuscript.
3. To offer feedback on your writing.
4. To share insights into the publishing industry.

Commitments

As your mentor, I commit to:

- Meet with you [frequency, e.g., weekly, biweekly].
- Provide constructive feedback on your work.
- Encourage your professional development as a writer.
- Connect you with resources and networks.

Your responsibilities as a mentee include:

- Being open to feedback and willing to learn.
- Setting clear goals for our sessions.
- Preparing materials for discussion.
- Communicating any challenges you face.

Duration

This mentorship will last for [duration, e.g., six months] starting from [start date]. We can reassess our goals and relationship after this period.

Confidentiality

All discussions and materials shared will remain confidential unless otherwise agreed upon.

Looking forward to working with you and helping you achieve your writing aspirations!

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
