To the [Contest Name] Judges,

I'm writing to submit my narrative non-fiction piece titled "[Title of Your Work]", which delves into [briefly describe the central theme or subject of your narrative]. This work aims to shed light on [mention the significance or unique angle of your story].

The narrative revolves around [briefly outline the main characters or events involved], illustrating [mention the emotions or experiences conveyed]. Through a blend of personal anecdotes and researched facts, I aspire to engage readers and evoke a deeper understanding of [key issues or themes].

Having spent [X amount of time] researching and writing this piece, I believe it fits beautifully within the scope of the [Contest Name] as it explores [connect your work with the contest theme or focus].

Thank you for considering my submission. I look forward to the opportunity to share my work with your esteemed panel.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
