

Narrative Non-Fiction Workshop Synopsis

Title: The Untold Stories of City Streets

Author: Jane Doe

Synopsis:

Set against the vibrant backdrop of urban life, "The Untold Stories of City Streets" weaves together the real-life experiences of diverse individuals navigating the complexities of city living. This narrative non-fiction piece illuminates the intersecting lives of a street musician striving for recognition, a single mother working multiple jobs to provide for her children, and a retired veteran reflecting on his past. Through their intimate stories, readers will explore themes of resilience, community, and the often-overlooked beauty of everyday life in the bustling metropolis.

Workshop Focus:

This workshop will guide participants through the process of crafting compelling narrative non-fiction pieces, emphasizing storytelling techniques, character development, and the importance of authenticity in writing. Participants will engage in hands-on exercises and receive constructive feedback aimed at refining their narrative skills.