Dear [Recipient's Name],

We are excited to announce the implementation of the Board Director Apprenticeship Program aimed at nurturing future leaders in our organization. This program will provide valuable opportunities for apprentices to gain insights and experience in board governance and strategic decision-making.

We invite you to participate in this initiative by contributing your expertise and insights. Your involvement will be instrumental in guiding apprentices as they learn and develop essential skills for board service.

Please let us know your availability for an initial meeting to discuss the program's structure and your potential role.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to shape the next generation of leaders within our board.

Sincerely,
