Dear [Franchisee Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to discuss the matter of financial recompense related to our franchise agreement.

As you know, ensuring a mutually beneficial relationship is our priority. We value your commitment and would like to address any financial concerns you may have experienced.

We propose a meeting to review the financial aspects of your operations, explore potential adjustments, and discuss how we can support your efforts moving forward.

Please reply with your available times, so we can arrange a suitable meeting date. Thank you for your continued dedication to our brand.

Best regards,
