Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally express my objection to the promotional material that your company has circulated regarding [specific product or service]. I believe that the content presented is misleading and does not accurately reflect the quality or nature of the product.

Specifically, I have noticed the following discrepancies:

- [Detail 1: description of misleading information]
- [Detail 2: description of misleading information]
- [Detail 3: description of misleading information]

This type of promotional material not only misleads consumers but also tarnishes the reputation of your company. I urge you to reconsider the language and claims used in your promotions to ensure they are truthful and transparent.

I look forward to your prompt attention to this matter and hope to see a resolution that reflects a commitment to ethical marketing practices.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
